Background Information: On 6-7-03, at about 6:45 p.m., EPD responded to a report of a shooting that had just occurred in the parking lot in the 700 block of E. Mission Ave. On arrival, officers found the victim in the driveway at the entrance to an apartment complex. The victim, who had suffered a gunshot wound to the body, was transported by paramedics to a local hospital; he was subsequently pronounced dead.

Through witness interviews and evidence found during the investigation, the investigators assigned to this case learned that Angel Torres was the suspect. As of this time, Torres is still outstanding and has not been captured.

On 6-20-03, a murder warrant was obtained for Torres' arrest.

EPD considers this suspect to be armed and dangerous and no one should confront him about the crime. He may be in the Escondido area or neighboring cities. If anyone observes this suspect, call your local law enforcement agency immediately (reference EPD Case 03-10111).
